Beijing InfoComm China 2020 Organizers Announce Postponement

Beijing, 3 February 2020 - The World Health Organization has declared a public health emergency of international concern on 30 January 2020. This declaration was made to promote and co-ordinate international efforts and enhanced preparedness in response to the Novel Coronavirus (2019-nCoV) outbreak.

To ensure the safety of our exhibitors and attendees and in support of the Chinese government's efforts to contain the spread of the virus, InfoCommAsia Pte Ltd, the organizer of Beijing InfoComm China 2020 has decided to postpone the show, which was scheduled to take place from 26-28 March 2020.

Said Richard Tan, Executive Director of InfoCommAsia Pte Ltd, "While we understand that this may cause inconvenience, the safety of all our exhibitors and attendees is of prime importance and we made this decision with their best interest in mind. We will continue to monitor this fluid situation as it evolves and keep all exhibitors and attendees updated."

New dates for the show will be announced as soon as possible.

About InfoCommAsia

InfoCommAsia Pte Ltd. extends its influence through three marquee shows: InfoComm Southeast Asia, Beijing InfoComm China and InfoComm India. Each show comprises an exhibition that showcases the world's most cutting-edge and in-demand inventions, and a Summit that presents learning opportunities. Bringing together industry players and top-level decision-makers from across all industries, the shows enable industry players to tap into the vast potential presented by the Professional AudioVisual and Integrated Experience Technology markets of each country and region.
